To Go To Africa" on Insane. Most tapes are still only $7/$8/$9 to US/Canada/elsewhere: except for Fake Fight for $10/$11/$12. Aren't you glad you live in America? E. Chadbourne, 2306 Sherwood St., Greensboro, NC 27403.

■ Domator-Reportaz. Live recording in students club "Nurt" in Poznan, c/o Henryk Palczewski, ul. Ludowa 24/5, 64-920 Pila, Poland. Some raw rock-noise with harsh vocals all in Polish, lots of changes, some very delicate beautiful piano. Drums, keyboards, vocals, bass, trumpet.

■ Gargoyle Mechanique sends (free for radio broadcast) Hous of Dogs, 26 minutes of a radio theater humor/tragedy gripper which would have thrilled Antonis Artaud. Sort of a variation on the Cenci family horrors. Side B includes other short examples of their characteristic mysterious sounds. Very creative stuff. Write to them at 69 First Ave., Suite B, NYC 10003

■ Golliwog: Leenart Eilersen, Storgatan 29, 2 tr, 34100 Ijungby, Sweden. Ogreish guttural sounds and hard electronics. A C60 Swedish compilation. Catalog with "I'm acoustic traveler" t-shirts etc.. Invites contributions: "send for info: do yer own industrial anjuzic or koramit zaizide-but don't forget to videotape yer brutal mortal action." Low budget package—xerox paper folded in half folded/glued on edges. 25 Skr (Swedish crowns).

■ Invisible Land Productions sends us Notes from Underground, The Arms of Someone New. $4 from PO Box 20281 Station A, Champaign IL 61820 Electric guitar folk songs with a mix of paper, beige with brown ink, printed 2 sides with lyrics and carefully folded with little strips of paper and little slogans which tie the whole thing together. What we hear is a singer songwriter playing guitar in a folk mode with percussion, water, violin, horn, little bells, songs about love, the wind, friends; promo calls it acoustic new wawae.
